

Survey participants needed!

Researchers at the University of Technology, Jamaica (UTech, Ja) and the University of Huddersfield (UK) are investigating attitudes towards child sexual abuse.

This survey is open to university students in Jamaica aged 18 and over only. You do not need to have personal experience of abuse to take part.

Complete the survey online via this link.

It should take no longer than 20 minutes.

As a thank you for your time, the first 900 participants will receive mobile phone credit to the value of J$1000.

CONTENT WARNING: This survey contains sensitive questions on childhood abuse and domestic violence. If you are likely to find this distressing, it is advised that you do not take part.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: If you have questions about this study or your participation in it, please contact None in Three Jamaica Country Director, Dr Christine Fray at c.fray@hud.ac.uk
